Summary

My colleagues and superiors have characterized me as a forward-thinking, innovative UX/UI Product Design Professional with extensive dedicated experience within the realm of web and visual design throughout my professional career. I've exuded my intrinsic affinity for cultivating a startup culture within large-scale companies with each position I've held.

Additionally, I have always demonstrated my capability in combining collaborative efforts and streamlined communications with multidisciplinary, cross-functional teams, thereby delivering UX/UI product design projects timely and efficiently. I am quite proficient in implementing incentivized initiatives to leverage colleagues' output, enhance workplace morale, and increase operational efficiency. When it comes to issuing resolution and swift decision-making, I have consistently maintained a keen diagnostic analysis capability, thus availing my proactive, solutions-oriented disposition.

Finally, I will note that I am accomplished in developing functional design solutions and building and maintaining relationships across several teams to attain such solutions. If you would like to connect with me, feel free to reach out via email at devon@devonburroughs.com. I look forward to it!
